

RESULT: LOW RISK
(M-CHAT-R-SCORE:0-2)

Your child's M-CHAT-R-F™ score indicates a low risk for Autism Spectrum Disorder. If your child is younger than 24 months, screen again after second birthday or at future well-child visits. No further action required unless surveillance indicates risk for ASD.

You may book an appointment to see a Specialist if you still have any cause for concerns